1) I am filled with forests and thousands of lakes. One of my largest cities is Gothenburg. I share the Scandinavian Peninsula with one of my neighbours.

5) I sit between Europe and Asia. My largest city, Istanbul, lies on two continents. The Bosphorus, one of my most famous waterways, connects two seas.

2) I am home to the beautiful city of Brno and the historic city of Plzeň. The River Vltava flows through me. Many visitors enjoy exploring my castles and old town squares.

6) I am home to the cities of Porto and Faro. The River Douro flows through my vineyards, where famous wines are produced. I lie on the western edge of Europe.

3) I have a coastline on the Adriatic Sea and a landscape filled with mountains. One of my most famous cities is Mostar, known for its beautiful bridge. My unusual name is made up of two parts.

7) I have a stunning coastline along the Adriatic Sea. My cities include Split and Rijeka. Thousands of islands lie just off my shore.

4) I have large forests, mighty rivers and busy cities such as Hamburg and Munich. One of my most important waterways is the River Rhine. I am located in the heart of Europe.

8) I am famous for my windmills, tulip fields and canals. My city of Rotterdam has one of the largest ports in Europe. Much of my land lies below sea level.
