

Who were the Tudors?

The Tudors were a famous family who ruled England a very long time ago. They lived over 500 years ago! The first Tudor king was called Henry VII. He became king in 1485.

The most famous Tudor was probably King Henry VIII. He was known for having six wives! Henry VIII was a big, powerful man who loved feasting, music and sport.

Henry VIII had three children who all became rulers. Their names were Edward, Mary and Elizabeth. Queen Elizabeth I was one of the greatest rulers England ever had. She had bright red hair and wore beautiful clothes.

The Tudors built grand palaces and ships. They were a very important family in English history. The last Tudor ruler was Queen Elizabeth I, who died in 1603.

Questions

1. What was the name of the first Tudor king?
2. When did the first Tudor king become king?
3. What is the most famous Tudor king called?
4. How many wives did Henry VIII have?
5. Name one thing Henry VIII loved to do.
6. How many children did Henry VIII have?
7. What were the names of Henry VIII's three children?
8. What colour hair did Queen Elizabeth I have?
9. When did Queen Elizabeth I die?
10. Henry VIII is described as "big and powerful." What does that tell us about what he might have been like as a king?

Text A Quiz

Read and Retrieve